

Building a Strong Financial Reputation

Name _____

1 Select the items from the list below would help you measure the reputation of a person you never met.

- Number of As and Bs on a report card
- Class rank or GPA in high school
- Number of followers on social media
- Likes on a post
- Extracurricular activities
- ZIP code
- Driving record
- School office referrals, detentions or suspensions
- Criminal record

2 Put a check next to the statements that describe you.

- I rarely lose or break valuable items.
- If I asked a friend to borrow $20, they would lend it to me if they had the money.
- I turn in assignments on time and never miss a deadline.
- My family and friends would describe me as being responsible.
- When I have a job to do, I take pride in doing it right.

3 Label the range with the lowest and highest credit scores.

4 Select the things you plan to do someday.

- Use car insurance
- Apply for a student loan
- Have your own cell phone plan
- Get a job
- Apply for a credit card
- Buy a car
- Rent an apartment
- Own a home

5 List information found on most credit reports.

---

---

---

---

---

6 I can build good credit by:

---

---

---

---

---